TO: The Honorable Daniel T. K. Hurley, Judge
U.S. District Court, West Palm Beach, Florida

REPORT OF STATUS OF CASE AND REQUEST FOR TERMINATION OF PROBATION

I. COMPLIANCE WITH SUPERVISION CONDITIONS

The above offender was sentenced on June 29, 2001, to five (5) years probation for Ct. 1 Failure to Pay Child Support in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 228(a)(3). At the time of sentencing the Court ordered the following special conditions: 1) Provide complete access to financial information, including disclosure of all business and personal finances; 2) Do not incur any further debt, included but not limited to loans, lines of credit, either as a principal or co-signer, or as an individual or through any corporate entity, without obtaining consent from the U.S. Probation Officer, 3) Restitution in the amount of $332,479.26 with 50% distributed to the State of Florida Disbursement Unit, and 50% toward the payment of his son's student loan.

Mr. Green's supervision will terminate on June 28, 2006. On March 9, 2005, a General Affidavit signed by the defendant's ex-wife Sheila Green was submitted to this officer. This affidavit addressed Ms. Green's desire and recommendation to the Court that the defendant be released from all financial obligations regarding child support in exchange for a final payment of $19,000. The affidavit further addressed the continued payment, by the defendant of the son's student loans. The officer confirmed with Ms. Green that she received a payment of $19,000 and according to Janice Thompson, the student loan payments were completed on October 7, 2005.

II. RECOMMENDATION

Based upon the above information, this officer would recommendation to the Court that the offender's supervision be terminated. Mr. Green is self employed and continues to comply with the orders of supervision.
